One of the greatest mining deals of northern Arizona took place when the Central Mining company passed into the hands of eastern capital. This property, which lies about forty miles north of Williams, has been worked extensively during the past year, with most excellent results, shipping numerous carloads of copper to El Paso and Pueblo.

Weather and crop bulletin for Navajo county in Southwest Stock man: Pinetop—Windy days and cool nights. Rains of last week have started everything growing well. Grass good; cattle in good condition; potatoes taking a new growth and better than expected. Most all crops a failure owing to drought. Peaches ripening, but small in size. —H. Hansen, Jr.

Ti Hi Begay, a Navajo Indian, has been acquitted at Flagstaff of the murder of a cowboy named Montgomery last November in the mountains about thirty-five miles south of Flagstaff. After the killing of Montgomery a pitched battle occurred between seven Indians, among whom was Ti Hi, and Deputies Hogan and Roden. Five Indians were killed and both deputies badly wounded. Chief Boggetin, who participated in the fight, was wounded. He remained in hiding nearly a year, sending word to the officers that he would be on hand when the pow wow opened. He traveled 100 miles over rough country and walked into court just as Ti Hi Begay's trial began. On the acquittal of Begay, Boggetin was also released.

A circular distributed around town Thursday tells us that Madame Francis, phrenologist, medium and fortune teller, is domiciled in a tent near the track west of the depot and asks the people to come and see the wonderful hair, big rattlesnake and other curios—for a few days only. She is also the manufacturer of an electric hair grower and scalp cleaner, and in addition to all this says she can remove freckles, cure corns and other blemishes successfully. She will give references of herself from all the people she has already seen in this town and country, as well as the nobility of the old world. If this combination of wonderful things the madame can do is not satisfactory to the most exacting, then Holbrook's citizens are indeed very hard to please.

NOMINATE A WINNER.

Governor Murphy Chosen to Lead the Republicans of the Territory to Victory.

The Republican territorial convention met at Phoenix Monday. At 10:30 a. m. Charles R. Drake, chairman of the Republican territorial committee, called the convention to order and announced that he had appointed Harry Carpenter of Yuma county to act as secretary of the committee in the absence of J. Knox Corbett. Carpenter read the call, which on motion of Herring of Pima was adopted.

A. J. Doran of Yavapai was made temporary chairman and J. V. Vickers of Cochise temporary secretary.

Two committees were appointed, one on credentials and one on permanent organization and order of business, after which a motion for a recess to 1:30 p. m. was carried.

At 2 p. m. the convention was again called to order and the committee on permanent organization recommended Col. William Herring of Pima for permanent chairman and W. C. Foster of Maricopa for permanent secretary.

Both gentlemen took the platform and Col. Herring delivered a rousing Republican speech, which was greeted with enthusiasm.

A committee on platform and resolutions was appointed, which reported as follows:

The Republicans of Arizona in convention assembled congratulate the members of the party in the territory upon the grand achievements of the present national administration and we believe that the people of this nation will by an overwhelming majority return William McKinley to the presidential chair, which he has filled with such distinguished honor to himself and such high credit to the people of the United States.

We unite in endorsing the territorial administration of Governor N. O. Murphy and point with pride to the efficient administration of every department of the territorial government under the guidance of the gentleman selected to assist him in his administration of the affairs of the territory. His devotion to public duty and his high sense of his obligation and responsibility to the national administration and to the people of Arizona in the discharge of his high trust eminently entitle him to the thanks of all classes in our territory.

Under the platform recently adopted at the national Republican convention, which we heartily endorse, we feel that the Republican party will carry its standard victoriously through the present political contest and give to these United States a gratifying solution of the existing problems affecting our acquisition of foreign territory while maintaining the national honor and the supremacy of our flag for the protection of those who are required to be sheltered beneath its folds.

We cannot, as Republicans, fail to express the high satisfaction which, in common with the entire body of the Republican party, we feel at the results of the Republican tariff legislation. Our prosperous manufacturers are enabled each year to ship less raw materials and more manufactured products; we buy less from other nations, more for ourselves, and sell to them more of what we produce; and the products of the food producing states have found a steady and increasing home market at profitable prices due to the growth of manufacturing industries and the influx of population caused thereby.

We pledge the party organization to use its best efforts to secure the early admission of Arizona as a state of the American union.

We pledge the Republican party of Arizona to use its utmost endeavors to secure national aid, by appropriation of money and donations of land, and all other legitimate means, to reclaim the arid lands of the West, especially the desert lands of Arizona, by all and every means within its power.

We strongly favor the adoption of home rule for Arizona.

For delegate Governor N. O. Murphy was placed in nomination in a strong speech by Colonel Herring, after placing Griffith of Pima in the chair.

Jerry Millay placed in nomination Captain George D. Christy.

Several seconding speeches were made by the supporters of both candidates, and then the convention proceeded with the balloting. The result of the vote was as follows:

For Murphy—

Apache.....9

Cochise.....13

Cocino.....1

Maricopa.....1

Pima.....7

Pinal.....2

Santa Cruz.....4

Yavapai.....2

Yavapai.....2

Yuma.....2

Total.....56

For Christy—

Gila.....8

Maricopa.....28

Pima.....6

Pinal.....2

Yavapai.....8

Total.....54

The result of the ballot was not announced, Judge Kibbey making a motion that the nomination of N. O. Murphy be made unanimous by acclamation, which was carried, followed by three cheers for Murphy and three more for Christy.

Governor Murphy appeared and made a speech, setting forth the main points in issue before the country, and dwelt particularly on the promise of statehood for Arizona, which he was confident is so near at hand that the next delegate elected to congress would never be sworn in.

Captain Christy was then introduced and made a splendid speech covering every matter in which the party is interested and presenting an array of facts and argument that will furnish groundwork for many a speaker during the fight now on in earnest in this territory, after which the convention adjourned.

DR PRICE'S BAKING POWDER

Is a pure baking powder—no alum, lime or ammonia.

No acid but that from grapes—which is pure, pleasant and healthful—enters into Dr. Price's Baking Powder.

Fruit acids are accounted by hygienists the most important of the elements of the food of man, and of these the acid of the grape is most prominent.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is not only the most efficient and perfect of leavening agents, but owing to its constituents is likewise promotive of health.
